

Marshall Public Library

This demonstration garden was designed to showcase four drought tolerant grasses that do well in Pocatello. A mixture of low water perennials, shrubs and trees surrounding the grasses showcase other low water plants that do well locally, and provide needed habitat for local birds and other wildlife.

